Kevin Dellicker Statement on Primary Election Results

GERMANSVILLE, PA – Kevin Dellicker, Republican candidate for the U.S. House of Representatives in PA's 7th Congressional District, issued the following statement on the May 17th Primary Election results:

Last night, I called Lisa Scheller and congratulated her on her victory and wished her well in the general election. We all want to reverse the damaging progressive policies that are hurting our nation. I truly hope Lisa Scheller's campaign will contribute to a Republican wave that returns fiscal responsibility and limited government to Washington. We need it.

In running, I wanted to defeat Susan Wild and restore a Republican majority in Congress. I also wanted to prove that a normal guy – who's not rich, famous or a professional politician – can represent his neighbors in Washington. We didn't win, but we sent a message loud and clear.

Our campaign was outraised 10-1 and opposed by the Republican establishment. We still came within a few votes of winning this election. I hope future candidates, those who fit the profile of ordinary people who've lived extraordinary lives, will study our race and be inspired to run for office. It can be done.

Most of all, I strived every day to exemplify the words of the great British author C.S. Lewis, to put "do as you would be done by" into action." I hope this was evident throughout our campaign – that I never compromised my principles, never embarrassed my family name, and never exhibited conduct unbecoming an officer. Only my Lord Jesus Christ will judge whether I achieved that goal, but today, I am at peace with my work.

I look forward to using this campaign as a springboard for returning optimism, authenticity, and civility to our politics. I will continue to hold our party leaders and elected officials accountable and we continue to work for strong families, good jobs, and safe communities.

In an email to his supporters, Dellicker thanked his family, his team, and each of his volunteers. He promised that he was not going away, but would continue to fight to Keep America Free.
